Question
No.36/2024

Member for Kimaeti Ward (Hon. Jack Wambulwa – MCA) to get a response from the CECM and Chief Officer Department of Roads, Transport, Infrastructure and Public Works in relation to the recent painting and marking of lanes on the Musikoma – Kanduyi dual carriage road. The Chairperson to elaborate the following:

1. Has the contractor concluded the entire structural works on the said road?
2. What are the entire outstanding or pending works on the said road?
3. Should there be any outstanding structural works, let the Chairperson find out:
 - a) Whether there are any further layers of tarmac to be laid on the said road.
 - b) If yes, what informed the painting and marking of lanes on the said road prior to the laying of further layers of tarmac?
 - c) The cost estimates of painting and marking of lanes alone.
 - d) Whether the act of painting and marking of lanes prior to completion of structural works is likely to lead to a variation and further costs for repainting and remarking once the structural works are completed.
4. Let the Chairperson inquire into:
 - a) What was the entire contractual amount for the said works?
 - b) What amount has so far been paid to the contractor?
 - c) What is the outstanding balance due to the contractor?
